

UNM

Residence Life & Student Housing

Residence Life Ambassadors

Residence Life Ambassadors serve as representatives of the on-campus living experience to current and prospective residents.

Residence Life Ambassadors share their first-hand experiences of living in the University residence halls to students and parents. Their primary duties include the following:

- Conduct positive and well-informed residence hall tours
- Develop peer-to-peer relationships with current and prospective residents
- Promote the on-campus living experience via social media, oral presentations, and participation in on-campus events
- Participate in residence hall activities and promote student involvement in residence hall programs

Residence Life Ambassadors have the unique opportunity of creating positive relationships with incoming and current students. Our Ambassadors are integral members of our Marketing Team and play an important role in encouraging students to get connected, be engaged, and live on campus!

If you are interested in this position, we encourage you to:

- Live on-campus
- Actively participate in your campus community
- Demonstrate excellent academic performance

Residence Life Ambassadors are recruited for service during the Academic Year and during the summer. Recruitment for this position is typically conducted in August – September for Academic Year positions and February – April for summer positions.

Residence Life Ambassadors are compensated at $8.75 per hour.