The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL `https://login.unm.edu/cas/login?&service=https%3A%2F%2Funm-residence.symphlicity.com%2Ffso%2Fresident%2Ffso.php%2Fpid234692`. The page header features the University of New Mexico logo and the text "THE UNIVERSITY of NEW MEXICO". Below the header is a grey bar with the text "UNM Central Authentication Service". The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column contains a login form with the heading "Enter your Username and Password". It includes a "Username:" label with a text input field containing "Net ID", a "Password:" label with a text input field containing "Password", and a checkbox labeled "Warn me before logging me into other sites." Below the form are two red buttons: "LOGIN" and "CLEAR". The right column contains a security warning: "For security reasons, quit your web browser when you are done accessing services that require authentication!". Below this is a paragraph of advice: "Be wary of any program or web page that asks you for your NetID and password. Secure UNM web pages that ask you for your NetID and password will generally have URLs that begin with 'https://login.unm.edu' In addition, your browser should visually indicate that you are accessing a secure page." At the bottom of the right column is a section titled "Need help with your NetID?:" followed by three bullet points: "Create a UNM NetID", "Reset Password", and "Change Password", each with a blue hyperlink.
